WEISSBURGUNDER (PINOT BLANC) TROPHY – FALSTAFF 2021
Weissburgunder is by no means “Chardonnay’s little brother”, writes falstaff, but also a “sophisticated characterful wine” that are excellent companions with food. This doesn’t just apply for young wines but also for mature wines, which were also tasted, for instance this fine rare example selected from the Bürgerspital’s treasure vault.

WINE ESTATE OF THE YEAR – SELECTION 2022

This triple has never been given by the wine magazine selection to any wine estate before. Winning the categories Riesling, International and Edelsüß (Sweet dessert wines). When asked what the key to this success was, Robert Haller, the wine estate director, answered: “It is, of course the unique vineyards that our foundation wine estate owns, as well as the fact that we strive to produce the highest quality, that brings out the best character of each vineyard, something I didn’t think possible in the past.” For these results the entire range was tasted from Gutswein to Erste Lage and Grobes Gewächs.

4 STARS WINE ESTATE – VINUM WINE GUIDE 2022

For the remarkable continuity and first-class wines, were again the reason that VINUM awarded us 4 stars and VINUM don’t see an end to this upward trend! The Würzburger Stein-Berg Riesling GG is among the best Rieslings in Germany. According to the VINUM tasters, it has “depth and structure” and a high ageing potential. VINUM rates our red wines as “discoveries for red wine connoisseurs” and is impressed by their “finesse” and “classic burgundian virtue”.
